

PRIME MINISTER • PREMIER MINISTRE

2017

Dear Friends:

I am pleased to extend my warmest greetings to everyone celebrating the 40th anniversary of the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts.

Since its inaugural season in 1977, the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts has become a treasured part of the community's cultural life, offering audiences a chance to enjoy an exciting range of live music, theatre, dance and comedy programming. This milestone is a wonderful opportunity to reflect upon your past successes and to set goals for the future.

Art and culture play an important role in the lives of Canadians, contributing to the well-being of individuals and enhancing economic development in communities. I would like to commend everyone involved with the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts for your efforts to foster an appreciation of the arts.

Please accept my best wishes for a memorable anniversary.

Sincerely,

The Rt. Hon. Justin P. J. Trudeau, P.C., M.P.
Prime Minister of Canada
