

Oakville, 2017 Congratulations!

On behalf of the Town of Oakville and all members of Town Council, I extend sincere congratulations to the Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts on the occasion of its 40th Anniversary.

We take great pride in looking back on the cultural milestones the Oakville Centre has made possible. It opened its doors in 1977, playing host to hometown favourite and Juno Award winner, Haygood Hardy. Throughout the years, notable figures like Oscar Peterson, Liona Boyd and Karen Kain have packed the house, delighting fans young and old. Our own Oakville Symphony Orchestra has transported us on a musical journey of memorable music. Thousands of performances later, the Oakville Centre celebrates the achievement of providing its patrons with 40 years of outstanding entertainment.

The Oakville Centre for the Performing Arts has truly lived up to its mandate: to provide the public with experiences and performances from the cultural world and to foster an appreciation of the arts where culture inspires, engages and thrives within the community.

The road ahead has never looked brighter. We wish you the very best for a successful future full of excitement, achievement and standing ovations!

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in green ink, appearing to read "RMB", is positioned above the printed name of the Mayor.

Mayor Rob Burton